

The Southern study group of the North American Kant Society

Announces its inaugural meeting and call for papers

March 5-6, 2010

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX

Keynote Speaker: Otfried Höffe, Professor and Chair in Philosophy,
Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen

Invited Speakers: Rudolf Makkreel, Charles Howard Candler Professor of Philosophy,
Emory University
Richard Velkley, Celia Scott Weatherhead Professor of Philosophy,
Tulane University
John Zammito, John Antony Weir Professor of History,
Rice University

The deadline for submissions is December 1, 2009. The selection committee welcomes papers in all areas of Kantian scholarship. Reading time should be limited to 30 minutes and submissions are not to exceed 25 pages. Completed papers must be prepared for blind review, with contact information sent in a separate file. Graduate students should indicate their status in the body of their papers. Papers read at any of the other NAKS meetings may not be submitted. Please send your submission, and any inquiries, to Kristi Sweet, Assistant Professor of Philosophy at Texas A&M University: k-sweet@philosophy.tamu.edu. Paper submissions are also welcome, 4237 TAMU, College Station, TX 77843. Please visit our website at <http://snaks.tamu.edu> for more information. This meeting is generously supported by the Glasscock Center for Humanities Research and the Texas A&M Philosophy Department.